Course Description and Textbook

This is a graduate introduction to complex analysis. I will assume you have a solid background in undergraduate analysis and the writing of rigorous proofs. You need not have taken an undergraduate course in complex analysis. The main book we will use is “Complex Analysis,” by Elias M. Stein and Rami Shakarchi.

Homework

Homework assignments will be given approximately every 1-2 weeks. You are encouraged to work together on these, but please make sure that you write up the solutions on your own. The homework assignments will be given in class and posted on the course webpage.
