Quotients of Courant algebroids and generalized geometries

Marco Gualtieri
Department of Mathematics
MIT

Abstract

I will describe a quotient procedure which applies to generalized geometries, and explain how it produces new examples of bi-Hermitian geometries whose existence has been only conjectural until now.