I'll explain how Poisson modules are used to construct new examples of bi-Hermitian metrics, as well as their relation to branes on generalized complex manifolds.