Tautological Classes and Cohomological Field Theories in Genus One

Takashi Kimura
Department of Mathematics
Boston University

Abstract

We describe a simple graphical presentation for tautological classes on the moduli space of curves in genus 0 and 1 in terms of boundary strata, derive differential equations satisfied by the generating functions for their intersection numbers, and use the results to describe the moduli space of rank one, genus one, cohomological field theories.