Gromov-Witten invariants on Grassmannians

Harry Tamvakis
Department of Mathematics
Brandeis University

Abstract
We describe recent and ongoing work with Anders Buch and Andrew Kresch, which shows that the three point genus zero Gromov-Witten invariants on Grassmannians are related to classical intersection numbers on homogeneous spaces of the same Lie type. One application is a conjectural quantum Littlewood-Richardson rule, phrased using Knutson’s language of puzzles.